

November 23, 2009 06:01 AM Pacific Time

Phone Power Expands Brand into Best Buy® Stores Nationwide

- Combo Pack offers home phone adapter and travel adapter for one monthly price.
- Unlimited home phone service starting at $14.95 per month.

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Phone Power today announced that its award-winning VOIP phone service is on the shelves at Best Buy retail stores nationwide. Featuring a unique home-and-travel combo kit, the Phone Power combo pack includes a two-line home adapter as well as a USB travel adapter. Both devices use the same phone number and with no extra monthly service charge.

“Phone Power’s unlimited residential and small business service has been saving people money on their telephone service for years. Expanding that reach through Best Buy, the premiere distributor of electronics in North America, has validated our efforts,” said Jim Murphy, President of Phone Power. “We live in an increasingly mobile society. The ability to have two lines at home is nice... But people also find value in taking their number on vacation with the small travel adapter. It allows them to stay connected anywhere in the world.”

Pricing

- Retail pricing for the Best Buy combo pack is $79.95 in-store or at BestBuy.com.
- A $79.95 instant service credit is applied when the customer activates service on an eligible one or two year service plan.
- Service plans start at $14.95 per month for unlimited calling in the US and Canada and include 1 hour Free International calling to select destinations.

About Phone Power

Phone Power is a next-generation telecommunications company, headquartered in Los Angeles, California. A privately-owned company founded in 2005, they provide telecommunications service to the continental US, and Canada. All customer service is based in the USA. Phone Power customers range from single-line residential service all the way to corporate call centers. For more information about Phone Power, visit www.PhonePower.com.

Contacts

Phone Power
Nicholas Fiorina, 888-607-6937 x4425
media@phonepower.com

Permalink: <http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20091123005005/en>

“Phone Power’s unlimited residential and small business service has been saving people money on their telephone service for years. Expanding that reach through Best Buy, the premiere distributor of electronics in North America, has validated our efforts”

